LUKER Chocolate®

We are a family company dating back more than 117 years. We provide unique Cocoa Products and Chocolates as an ingredient for other food companies and manufacture finished products for other brands.

We ensure premium quality by using Fine Flavored Cocoa and guarantee supply, traceability, and good practices of sustainability*, quality, safety, security and competence. We also comply with legal and other applicable requirements* and continuously improve our processes focusing on risk management and effective internal and external communication strategies.

To support the organization's continued success, we operate under the following principles:

- We are committed to implementing and maintaining good security practices supported by competent personnel, safe facilities, reliable business partners and a security culture that allows operational traceability and information protection.
- We work under high security standards to prevent illicit activities, corruption, money laundering, drug trafficking, trafficking of substances for the processing of narcotics, arms trafficking, drug trafficking, smuggling, transnational bribery, terrorism, financing of terrorism, financing for the proliferation of weapons of mass destruction and contamination with chemical, radiological, and biological substances in our international supply chain.
- We promote transparency, truthfulness, and integrity of the process of creation, storage, transmission, and perception of information (TI) and the methods and tools of application of this process in order to mitigate security risks in the use of information technologies.
- We promote a culture of hazards identification, as well as the evaluation, assessment and control of risks and impacts for the prevention of accidents and occupational diseases, environmental and product contamination.
- We guarantee due respect and implementation of human rights at all levels of the organization.

We are faithful to our purpose of making the world a better, helping other companies to create products with purpose, using our chocolate as a tool for change.
